

December 20, 2006

Son of Trent Lott releases blues CD

The Clarion-Ledger

Chet Lott, son of Sen. Trent Lott, has released a blues CD, with benefits going to help victims of Hurricane Katrina, through the Southeast Mississippi Chapter of the American Red Cross.

The CD, Erased It, consists of 14 songs, including some originals. Lott wrote the title track about his family's home in Pascagoula, which was destroyed in the storm, and other homes claimed by wind and water. Lott, a graduate of the University of Mississippi, resides in Kentucky with his wife and children.

The CDs are $15 each. For more information, go on the Web to www.chetlott.com or call 601-209-1315.